PASTORAL PRAYER

Feb. 17, 1963

Author, Founder, Creator, God, we worship Thee here. We come before Thee in the name and honor of Jesus Christ, who is both thy Son and Thyself, and yet is also one of us.

We praise Thee for the common, everyday nice things of life. We like our friends with whom we can share interesting experiences and amusing stories. We love our family members, in spite of occasional points of friction with them. We enjoy the bountiful food, the means of moving about so that we may enjoy this beautiful land, the freedom we have to discuss things of interest and importance, and many other things which are so much a part of our lives. We thank Thee for all these, and for everything else too.

Since Thou has made us of such nature that we are never satisfied, we do not hesitate to ask thee for favors and desires which we do not possess. We request of Thee comfort for the grieving, guidance for newly-weds, both physical and spiritual nurture for children and youth, relief
